It's about time...the season of the year when we all know what to expect. Advent is a time to bring us closer to Jesus. It's a time to wait, to expect, to hope, to dream. This week we'll talk about some people who had to wait in Advent time.

11 Come into his presence, a sign of the "ADVENT" calendar. It's a sign of the long wait for the coming of the Messiah! What's a name for you? (I dream)

12 Four candles burn brightly on our Advent wreath. What's a name for the long wait for the coming of the Messiah? (I dream)

13 Counting candles on a wreath? When was the last time you counted down to something? (I dream)

14 It's a joyful season. It's a time to do what times pass by. (I dream)

15 The angel had to wait for Jesus' birth, too. Because just like us, he had to plan what would come after. What did some angels practice...? (I dream)

CHRISTMAS

a Come and See the Savior! When Jesus was born in Bethlehem, the shepherds on the hills nearby were told by angels just where to find him. Wise men in distant lands used a new star to locate the baby king. That invitation to see the Savior is ours as well! This unique Advent calendar helps point the way. Lift a window each day of December and see who pops in to see the Bethlehem baby! Cardstock • 9½" x 12½" • Code ACAG

b How Lovely Are Thy Branches Decorating an evergreen tree is a familiar Christmas tradition, one that can share the story of our salvation. Each day of Advent, open the ornament windows on this pop-up tree—a tree that points to heaven—and discover the meaning of the symbols as they pop up throughout the season of Advent. What will appear? A snake, an apple, a candle, a dove? Each ornament helps to tell the story of God's love. A love that leads us on the path to heaven above. Cardstock • 11" x 17" • Code DGG

c Up Above Bethlehem When Advent begins, lay this unique calendar on a table or mantelpiece. Each day of December, lift up a numbered window. What pops up? A shepherd or sheep? An angel or wise man? Perhaps a sky filled with angels! When Christmas arrives, an entire nativity scene will appear where there once was a scene of the empty Bethlehem hills, a wonderful reminder that Jesus was born to fill our emptiness with love and hope eternal. Look up to the skies! Listen up to the angels' message! Lift up the flaps and welcome our Lord, Jesus! Cardstock • 11" x 17" • Code DKG

d 12 Days of Christmas When Christmas Day arrives, the celebration is just beginning! Start a new window calendar tradition, one that keeps the Christmas joy going and glowing all the way to Epiphany. Lift up a numbered flap each day from December 25 to January 5, the 12 days of Christmas, and watch what appears as shepherds, angels and wise men come with good gifts to share. As the Christmas season ends, the star appears, completing the scene that can be displayed throughout the season of Epiphany. Cardstock • 9½" x 12½" • Code DGM

He always shows mercy to everyone who worships him...

The Lord has used his powerful arm to scatter those who are proud.

God gave the nations from their thrones and puts humble people in places of power.

God gives the hungry good things to eat, and sends the rich away with nothing.

God helps his servant Israel and is always merciful to his people.

The Lord made this promise to our ancestors, to Abraham and his family forever!

A SERIES OF SPECIAL SERVICES FOR ADVENT

NEW!

In this Advent Worship Series by renowned preacher Dean Nadasdy, we are reminded that Christ is born in us spiritually today and every day. He enters into us daily to strengthen and support us, save us and renew us. We are changed by his presence within us as we become more and more like him in the living of our lives.

Week 1 • Be Born in Us Today Bringing Blessing (Genesis 12:2): God promises Abraham that an offspring from his line would bring blessing to all. When Jesus was born, that promise came true with an abundance.

Week 2 • Be Born in Us Today Bringing Renewal (Isaiah 40:31): The prophet Isaiah declared that a Holy One from God would be born into this world to bring renewal to all the faint and weary. Christ's birth restores our strength that we might serve him.

Week 3 • Be Born in Us Today Bringing Guidance (Psalm 31:3): The children of Israel wandered in the desert for 40 years, often doubting God's plan for them. With the arrival of Jesus on the scene, we have a clear path to the promised land of heaven through him who is the Way.

Week 4 • Be Born in Us Today Bringing Power (Exodus 15:6): John the Baptist pointed to the power of God present in Jesus Christ. As we prepare for the birth of baby Jesus, we point others to the power at work in our lives through our Emmanuel, God with us.

Make your worship more family friendly

In this Advent worship series for families, we are reminded that Christ is with us. He enters into our homes to strengthen and support us, save us and renew us. We are changed by his presence as we grow closer to one another. The theme verse for the entire series is: For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6).

Week 1 • Be Born in Us Today Bringing Blessing (Genesis 12:2): God promises Abraham that an offspring from his line would bring blessing to all. When Jesus was born, that promise came true with abundance. As a craft, families build a family tree.

Week 2 • Be Born in Us Today Bringing Renewal (Isaiah 40:31): The prophet Isaiah declared that a Holy One from God would be born into this world to bring renewal to all the faint and weary. Christ's birth restores our strength that we might serve him. Families make posters highlighting Isaiah 40:31.

Week 3 • Be Born in Us Today Bringing Guidance (Psalm 31:3): The children of Israel wandered in the desert for 40 years, often doubting God's plan for them. With the arrival of Jesus on the scene, we have a clear path to the promised land of heaven through him who is the Way. Families create lantern ornaments.

Week 4 • Be Born in Us Today Bringing Power (Exodus 15:6): We point to the power of God present when the Israelites crossed the Red Sea. As we prepare for the birth of baby Jesus, we point to the power at work in our lives through our Emmanuel, God with us. Families put together "Crossing the Red Sea" displays.

Each service features songs for children, a family-friendly sermon, a group activity or craft, questions for discussion and prayers, along with newsletter/bulletin notices about the series.

We Three Kings

A Worship Series for Advent

By Arden Mead

Here is a series of three services for Advent which features dramatic "interviews" not with the wise men but with three ancient monarchs whose reigns impacted directly on the coming of Christ • David, a direct ancestor of our Lord • Augustus, in whose reign Jesus was born • Herod, who sought to kill the infant Savior.

Yet in Thy Dark Streets Shineth

A Worship Series for Advent

By Arden Mead

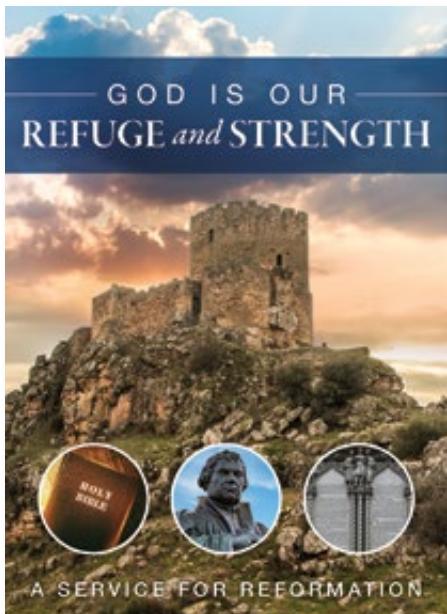

The three services in this worship series for Advent invite us on a journey to three significant locations in ancient Israel with dramatic sermons for three readers on: Jerusalem, site of sacrifice and forgiveness, where an aged priest entering the temple will confront the angel Gabriel • Nazareth, where a humble maiden will be told her part in the family of God • Bethlehem, where a young couple are just now being directed to a nearby stable.

God Is Our Refuge And Strength
A Worship Service for Reformation
By Mark Zimmermann

This service looks at the stirring words of Psalm 46, "A Mighty Fortress." The Psalm's image of a firm and sturdy fortification ties well with the solid tenets of the Reformation. By grace alone, by faith alone, by Scripture alone, we will not be moved.

For All Your Saints, O Lord
A Worship Service for All Saints Day
By Arden Mead

This service for All Saints Day provides an opportunity to name before God those who have died during the past year and allows time to name "personal saints"—past and present—who have been God's special gifts. Parishioners give thanks to God for working in the lives of all his people to connect them to one another, to his glory.

A Worship Service for the New Year
By Arden Mead
